(a) If my husband, Neil W. Trask, shall survive me.

During my said husband's lifetime, I direct with regard to this Subparagraph (a)

(1) My Trustee shall pay over to, or apply to the benefit of, my husband all of the net income of this trust in quarterly payments or at more frequent intervals as may be directed by my said husband.

(2) My husband shall have the absolute right, in his own discretion to invade the principal from time to time, in part or in toto, of my residuary estate trust as set forth in this Subparagraph (a) upon written notice given to my trustee of his desire to so invade the principal; and,

(3) My Trustee may, at any time or from time to time, pay to, or apply for the benefit of my husband, so much or all of the principal of this residuary estate trust as my Trustee, in its sole discretion, deems necessary or desirable, for the support, maintenance, health, comfort, or general welfare of my husband.

Upon the death of my husband my Trustee shall distribute my residuary estate trust as established pursuant to this Subparagraph (a):

(1) To such persons or to his estate upon such conditions, in trust or otherwise, in such manner and at such time as he appoints and directs by Will specifically referring to this power of appointment; and

(2) In default of such appointment as to any part of all thereof to add to and administer the same pursuant to the terms and conditions of Subparagraph (b) of this Item V of my Last Will and Testament.

To the extent permitted by applicable state law and the Internal Revenue Code, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, my husband may disclaim or renounce his rights and those of his estate to receive the income and principal,

In the event that my husband dies within nine (9) months after my death without having disclaimed any rights as described herein, the executor or administrator of my husband's estate may file a disclaimer on behalf of him and his estate by depositing an instrument of disclaimer in writing with my executor within nine (9) months after my death, and in such event such portion so disclaimed shall pass and be governed by the provisions of Subparagraph (b) of this Item V of this my Last Will and Testament.

(b) In the event that my said husband shall not survive me and/or in the event of and to the extent of disclaimer or renunciation of any portion of my estate heretofore devised or bequeathed, I will, devise and bequeath that the property passing hereunder be distributed unto my daughters, Margaret Trask Simpson and Amie Leith Wright, free of trust in equal shares, children of a deceased daughter taking their parent's representative share.

ITEM VI.

Property and cash distributable to a minor under this Will may be distributed by my executor to such minor personally or to such minor's legal guardian, or to some other person for such minor, and the receipt of such minor, or such minor's legal guardian, or such other person, shall be a complete discharge of my executor in regard to such distribution.

which I may own at the time of my death and which, in its judgment, it is advisable so to do and to deliver the same to the residuary trustee in kind. I further authorize my executor to invest any funds at any time in its hands in such stock, bonds, securities, investments or other evidences of indebtedness as to my executor shall seem prudent, with full power and authority to purchase investments as aforesaid at a premium, and in its discretion, to deduct all or any part of such premium from income.

ITEM VIII.

In the administration of my trust and estate established hereby, the Executor and Trustee shall have the following powers:

(a) To retain, and in its absolute discretion and for such period as to it shall seem advisable any and all investments and other properties held by me at my death without liability for any loss incurred by reason of the retention of such investment or property.

(b) To change investments and properties, and to invest and reinvest all or any part of the corpus of my estate or of any of the trusts hereby created in such securities, investments or other property including an undivided interest in any one or more common trust funds maintained by a professional Executor/Trustee as it may deem advisable and proper, irrespective of whether the same are authorized for the investment of trust funds by the laws of the State of South Carolina.

(c) To sell all or any part of the property of whatsoever kind of which I may die seized or possessed or to or in which I may be or become in any way entitled or have any interest whatsoever or over which I may have any power of appointment, or which at any time may constitute a part of my estate or of the trusts hereby established, at such times, upon such terms, for cash or on credit, with or without security, in such manner and at such prices, either by public or private sale, as to it shall seem advisable and proper, and to execute good and sufficient deeds and bills of sale therefor.

(d) To lease any property held by it for the duration of the term, irrespective of the provisions of any statute or of the termination of any trust; and to mortgage, pledge, collect, convert, redeem, exchange or otherwise dispose of any securities or other property at any time held by it.

(e) To borrow money, whether to pay taxes, exercise subscriptions, rights and options, pay assessments or to accomplish any other purpose of any nature incidental to the administration of my estate and any trust hereby established, and to pledge any securities or other property held by it as security therefor.

(f) To enforce any bonds, mortgages or other obligations or liens held hereunder; to enter into such contracts and agreements and to make such compromise or settlement of debts, claims or controversies as it may deem necessary or advisable; to submit to arbitration any matter or differences; to vote personally or by proxy any shares of stock which may at any time be held by it hereunder; and similarly to exercise by attorney any rights or pertinences to any other securities or other property at any other time held by it hereunder.

(g) To consent to the reorganization, consolidation, merger, liquidation, readjustment of or other change in any corporation, company or association, or to the sale or lease of the property thereof or any part thereof, of any of the securities or other property which may at the time be held by it hereunder, and to do any act or exercise any power with reference thereto that may be legally exercised by any person owning similar property in his own right, including the exercise of conversion, subscription, purchase or other options, the deposit or change of securities, the entrance into voting trusts and the making of agreements or subscriptions which it may deem necessary or advisable in connection therewith, and all without applying to any court for permission so to do, and to hold and redeem or sell or otherwise dispose of any securities or other property which it may so acquire, irrespective of whether the same be authorized for the investment of trust funds by the laws of the State of South Carolina.

(h) To cause to be registered in its own name, without qualification or description or in its name as executor or trustee hereunder, or in the name of its nominee or nominees, without qualification or description, any securities at any time held in my estate or any trust hereby established.

(i) To determine the manner in which the expenses incidental to or connected with the administration of my estate or the trusts hereby established shall be apportioned as between income and principal, including the right to charge an Executor or Trustee fee solely against income and to charge depreciation for tax purposes without the necessity of establishing a reserve.

(j) To carry out agreements made by me during my lifetime, including the consummation of any agreements relating to the capital stock of corporations owned by me at the time of my death, and including the continuation of any partnership of which I may be a member at the time of my death whenever the terms of the partnership agreement obligate my estate or my personal representative to continue my interest therein and to enter into agreements for the rearrangement or alteration of any interest or rights or obligations under any such agreements in effect at the time of my death.

(k) To apportion extraordinary and stock dividends received by it between income and principal in such manner as it may see fit, provided, however, that all rights to subscribe to new or additional stock or securities and all liquidating dividends shall be determined to be principal.

(l) To permit any person having any interest in the income of any trust created herein to occupy any real property forming part of such trust as the Trustee shall deem proper, whether rent free, or in consideration of the payment of taxes, insurance, maintenance and ordinary repairs, or otherwise.

(m) Except as otherwise directed, to make any division or distribution required under the terms of my Will or the trusts hereunder in kind or in money, or partly in kind or partly in money, and to that end to allot to any part or share such stock, securities or other property, real or personal, as to it seems proper in its absolute discretion, and its judgment as to the value of such stock, securities or other property so allotted shall be conclusive on all parties, provided, however, that the Executor/Trustee shall not be required to make physical division of the funds except when necessary for the distribution of principal but may, in its discretion, keep any trusts in one or more consolidated funds; nor shall the Executor/Trustee be required to make any provision on account of the diminution or increase in value of any securities or investments at any time constituting a part of my estate or the trusts hereby established or for depreciation in respect of any tangible property, or for the purpose of amortizing or making good any amounts paid in premiums on the purchase of securities or of any other property.

(n) My Executor/Trustee may freely act under all or any part of the powers by my trust given to it in all matters concerning my estate and any trusts hereby established, after forming its judgment based upon all of the circumstances of any particular situation as to the wisest and best course to pursue, without the necessity of obtaining the consent or approval of any court, and notwithstanding that it may also be acting as an individual, or as trustee of other trusts, or as agent for other persons or corporations interested in the same matters as stockholders, directors or otherwise; and any trusts herein created have been so made in contemplation of such freedom of judgment and action.

(o) The powers herein granted to my Executor/Trustee may be exercised in whole or in part, from time to time, and shall be deemed to be supplementary to and not exclusive of the general powers of fiduciaries pursuant to law, and shall include all powers necessary to carry the same into effect. The enumeration of a specific power herein shall not be construed in any way to limit or affect the general powers herein granted. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Item, the Executor/Trustee shall not exercise any power in a manner inconsistent with the right of the beneficial enjoyment of trust property accorded to a life beneficiary of a trust under the general provisions of the law of trusts.

(p) A corporate Executor/Trustee shall be entitled to compensation in administering and distributing the estate and Trust property according to its standard fee schedule then in effect and to reimbursement for its payment of trust expenses.

(q) Notwithstanding anything else herein to the contrary, if at any time my estate or a trust created herein shall have as an asset a policy of insurance on the life of a Trustee or Executor, such Trustee or Executor shall have no right or authority to deal with such policy of insurance. If there are co-executors or co-trustees then serving, the other Executor or Trustee shall exclusively exercise all incidents of ownership. If there is not a co-executor or co-trustee, then the Trustee shall appoint a third party to deal with said policy and all incidents of ownership related thereto.

ITEM IX.

In the event that all or any part of my estate or trust shall be distributable to and vested in a minor, my Executor/Trustee is authorized and empowered, in its absolute discretion, to hold the property so distributable and vested in such minor, or any part thereof, in a separate fund for the benefit of such minor, notwithstanding that such property may consist of investments not authorized by law for trust funds, and to invest and reinvest the same, collect the income therefrom, and, during the minority of such minor to apply so much of the net income or principal thereof to the support, education and maintenance of such minor, as my Executor/Trustee shall see fit, and to accumulate, invest and reinvest the balance of the income until such minor shall attain the age of twenty-one (21) years and thereupon pay over the corpus, together with any accumulated and undistributed income, to such minor. If such minor shall die before attaining the age of twenty-one (21) years, the corpus, together with any accumulated and undistributed income, shall be paid over to the estate of such minor. The authority conferred upon my Executor/Trustee by this paragraph shall be construed as a power only and shall not operate to suspend the absolute ownership of such property by such minor but to prevent the absolute vesting therein of such minor with respect to the administration of any such property which shall vest in the absolute ownership in a minor and which shall be held by the Executor/Trustee as authorized in this paragraph.

ITEM X.

In the event the income or principal payment under this my Last Will and Testament or any share thereof becomes payable to a person under legal disability or to a person not adjudicated incompetent but who, by reason of illness or mental or physical disability is, in the opinion of my Executor/Trustee unable to properly administer such amounts, then such amounts shall be paid out by my Executor/Trustee in such of the following ways as my Executor/Trustee deems best:

- (a) Directly to such beneficiary;
- (b) To a legally appointed guardian of such beneficiary;
- (c) To some relative or friend for the care, support, and education of such beneficiary;
- (d) By the Executor/Trustee, using such amounts directly for such beneficiary's care, support and education.

ITEM XI.

All stocks, bonds, bank accounts, saving accounts, building and loan accounts or other similar property I may own at the time of my death in my name and/or a Joint Tenant which are in turn payable on or after my death to such survivor shall be the sole property of such survivor and my executor shall make no claim against the Joint Tenant on account thereof.

ITEM XII.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, all property of any and every trust established pursuant to any of the trusts created herein shall vest in and be distributed to the persons then entitled to distributions of income at the expiration of twenty-one (21) years after the death of the last surviving beneficiary of such trust who is living at the time of my death, unless sooner vested as provided herein. The purpose of this provision is to prevent violation of the rule against perpetuities, and it shall be so construed.

ITEM XIII.

I direct that all estate, inheritance, succession, transfer and other death taxes and duties of any nature which may be assessed or imposed upon or with respect to all property includible in my gross estate for the purposes of such taxes and duties, together with any interest and penalties thereon, shall be paid in the manner hereinafter provided:

- (a) If my husband shall not survive me, such taxes, duties, interests and penalties shall be first paid from funds derived pursuant to subparagraph (b)(2) of Item XIII of this my Last Will and Testament and then, to the extent such funds are not adequate, out of the principal of my residuary estate, as an expense of administration, without contribution or reimbursement from, proration to, or apportionment against, any bequest or devise under this my Last Will and Testament or any other person owning or receiving any property, which is includible in my gross estate but which does not pass under this my Last Will and Testament.

(b) If my husband survives me, such taxes, duties, interest and penalties shall be charged against the maximum amount ascertained as provided in Item IV and to the extent that such maximum amount is insufficient fully to discharge the same, the amount of such insufficiency shall be apportioned against and paid by the persons entitled to or benefiting from the property occasioning such taxes, duties, interest and penalties in the manner provided by law.

ITEM XIV.

In the event that my husband and I should die simultaneously or under such circumstances that make it impossible to determine which of us shall have died first, it shall be conclusively presumed that I survived my husband.

ITEM XV.

I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint Neil W. Trask as Executor of this my Last Will and Testament and Trustee of the trusts created herein. In the event that for any reason my said husband shall not be able to serve, I nominate, constitute and appoint my daughter Amie Leith Wright as Executrix of this my Last Will and Testament and Trustee of the Trusts created herein. I direct that neither my Executor nor my Trustee be required to give bond.

I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint SAM CANNON as testamentary guardian over APRIL SUZANNE CANNON and CYNTHIA JEAN CANNON until they reach the age of twenty-one (21).

ITEM VI

By way of illustration and not of limitation and in addition to any inherent, implied, or statutory powers granted to executors generally, my executrix is specifically authorized and empowered: to allot, assign, buy, care for, collect, contract with respect to, to continue any business of mine, convey, convert, deal with, dispose of, enter into, exchange, hold, improve, incorporate any business of mine, invest, lease, manage, mortgage, grant and exercise options with respect to, take possession of, pledge, receive, release, repair, sell, sue for, and in general to exercise all of the powers in the management of similar property owned in her own right, upon such terms and conditions as to my executrix may deem best, and to execute and deliver any and all instruments and to do all acts which my executrix may deem proper or necessary to carry out the purpose of this Will, without being limited in any way by the specific grants of power made, and without the necessity of a court order. Any substitute or successor executor/executrix shall have all the powers granted to the original executrix.

ITEM VII

Whenever my executrix herein named (or any successors or substitute executor) is directed to distribute any property in fee simple to a person who is a minor at the date of distribution, my executrix shall transfer, convey and assign such property to herself as trustee and shall hold the property of such minor in trust for such minor during minority using so much of the net income and principal of the property as my trustee shall deem necessary to provide for the proper support, medical care and education of such minor taking into consideration to the extent my trustee deems advisable any other income or resources of such minor or of his or her parents. Such minor's property shall be paid over and distributed to such minor upon attaining age twenty-one (21) or if he or she shall sooner die, to his estate. Whenever my trustee determines it appropriate to pay any money or benefit of any minor for whom a trust is created hereunder, such amounts shall be paid out by my trustee in such of the following ways as my trustee deems best: (1) directly to such beneficiary; (2) to the legally appointed guardian of such beneficiary; (3) to some relative or friend for the support, medical care, and education of such beneficiary; (4) by my trustee using such amounts directly for such beneficiary's support, medical care and education. In holding any property for a minor under the provisions of this Item, my trustee shall have all of the power, discretionary or otherwise, heretofore conferred upon her as executrix.

ITEM VIII

If any beneficiary and I should die as a result of a common accident or calamity or otherwise under such circumstances as would render it doubtful whether the beneficiary or I died first, then it shall be conclusively presumed for the purposes of this Will that said beneficiary predeceased me; provided, however, that if my wife shall die with me as aforesaid, I direct that she shall be conclusively presumed to have survived me.
