ITEM X. My Executor shall have full power and authority to sell, exchange, assign, any security or property, real or personal, at public or private sale held in my estate, and to invest and reinvest the property held by it including accumulated income as it may exist at any time. My Executor can make distributions in money or kind, or partly in money and partly in kind as it shall determine. My Executor shall also have full power and authority to borrow money, whether to pay taxes; to exercise subscriptions, rights and options; to improve or develop real estate or interests therein for sale or lease; or for other proper purposes and to pledge or mortgage trust or estate assets as security for the repayment thereof.

My Executor shall have the power and authority to make distributions (including the satisfaction of any pecuniary bequests) in cash or in specific property, real or personal, or an undivided interest therein or partly in cash and partly in property, and to do so without regard to the income tax basis of specific property allocated to any beneficiary. In making distributions, I request (but do not direct) that my Executor do so in a manner which will result in an aggregate income tax basis as close as possible to its aggregate fair market value for the property to be sold to satisfy obligations of my estate and, to the extent consistent with this primary objective, do so in a manner which will result in maximizing the increase in basis for Federal and State estate and succession taxes attributable to appreciation.

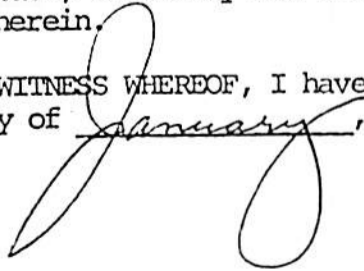

ITEM XI. My Executor shall be authorized to make any election permitted by any tax law, including the filing of joint returns, if in the opinion of such Executor such election is for the combined best interest of my estate and the beneficiaries thereof, and may make or agree to make such apportionment of taxes as such Executor may deem equitable under the circumstances. I specifically direct my Executor to elect to exclude from the carryover basis property in my estate, Ten Thousand ($10,000) Dollars of personal and household effects.

ITEM XII. If any beneficiary and I should die as a result of a common accident or calamity or otherwise under such circumstances as would render it doubtful whether the beneficiary or I died first, then it shall be conclusively presumed for the purposes of this Will that said beneficiary predeceased me.

ITEM XIII. Provisions made in this will for my wife are in lieu of and a bar to dower.

ITEM XIV. Whenever the word "Executor" or any modifying or substituted pronouns therefor are used in this my Will, such words and respective pronouns shall be held and taken to include both the singular and the plural, the masculine, feminine and neuter gender thereof, and shall apply equally to the Executor named herein and to any successor or substitute Executor acting hereunder, and such successor or substitute Executor shall possess all the rights, powers and duties, authority and responsibility conferred upon my Executor originally named herein.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 13 day of January, 1978.

LAST WILL
JULIA TELFORD

I, JULIA TELFORD, of the County of Abbeville, South Carolina, do hereby make and publish this as my Last Will and hereby revoke all previous wills and codicils by me made.

Several years ago I sold twenty acres of the twenty-three acres that my two sisters and my brother conveyed to me, this being the same property which was willed to us by our mother. I took the proceeds from this sale plus an equal amount of my own money and invested in mutual funds managed by the Putnam Fund and the Colonial Fund. It is my desire to return to my family my accumulation of property since my family has been very generous to me. Therefore, with this in mind, I devise my estate as follows:

1. I direct my Executor to pay out of my estate my legal debts, my funeral expenses, any unpaid expenses of my last illness, and the cost of a suitable tombstone or marker for my grave.

2. Since my sister, MARY T. GARNER, and I have discussed various aspects regarding my care should I become confined to a nursing home and other related business affairs, we have reached an understanding as to what property of mine shall be used to help meet my expenses. It is my desire for MARY T. GARNER to have my home place, but it is understood between ourselves that should I accumulate substantial expenses, my real estate shall be sold and the proceeds from such sale used to meet
